From Trinity's Call Committee

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Call Process Committee has been busy on a mission to find our next pastor for Trinity Lutheran Church. We have fielded interest and during that time watched our church come alive under the fellowship, communion and guidance of Pastor Young Chung.

We have listened and had conversation with many congregation members about her involvement and welcoming spirit in our church and beyond. It gives us great pleasure to state that the Call Process Committee is recommending Pastor Young as our next pastor. The council has accepted this recommendation and we will be having a Congregational meeting after service on August 14th. Please plan to attend for the voting of moving forward in our pastor selection process.

In Pastor's Young personal ministry statement she states the following: Helping people engage in lifelong faith and passing faith stories down to the next generations. Serving as a tool for "reaching in and reaching out" and "making Christ known and making a difference in the world." Taking journey alongside with those going through difficult times as well as taking church to those not being able to come to church due to health conditions.

Sharmel Olson, Chairperson of the Call Committee
