Pastor Young's Sharing Corner

"Called and Sent" to Proclaim and Serve

What can I say! I am humbled and honored to receive a call from Trinity Lutheran after serving you as an interim Pastor since August 2021. I would like to thank the Call committee, the church council, and those who came out to vote for calling me to continuously serve God and the community through you.

Reflecting on the Trinity's mission statement, "To unite all people in the love and fellowship of Jesus Christ, and to serve our growing community", I can say this is indeed a great place to accomplish my ministry goals: Making Christ known and making a difference in the community. During my interim ministry, you responded to my invitation to share your time and talents, pursuing and fulfilling the mission statement.

I would like to share with you my personal ministry statement:

- Faith-Shaping Ministry:
Helping people engage in lifelong faith and passing faith stories down to the next generation, making Christ known and making a difference in the world.
- Worship Arts Ministry:
Using art as a tool for "reaching in" and "reaching out."
- Care Ministry:
Taking journeys alongside those going through difficult times as well as taking church to those not being able to come to church due to health conditions.

To that end, I will focus on Confirmation and Wowsome while I still work with committees and other groups. I will utilize my gifts in worship and music to create opportunities for our members to get involved and for the community to build up webs of relationships, spread Good News, and help the needy. As a trained chaplain, I will listen to you without prejudice and being judgmental when you go through difficult times spiritually, emotionally, or mentally.

As I write this newsletter, September is just around the corner, which means we will resume Trinity's WOWSOME. I can already imagine seeing our children and youth's faces and their parents as well as teachers and volunteers on WOWSOME Wednesdays. I can't wait!

In Ministry together,

Pastor Young Chung

From Trinity's President

I am pleased that the congregation vote passed calling Pastor Young to serve at Trinity Lutheran Church.

I am thrilled to announce that Pastor Young has accepted our call.
