Bethlehem is once again coming to Brule County! Come to the Ag Building in Pukwana today at 5 PM for the 3rd annual live nativity pageant entitled "Bethlehem in Brule County". This community indoor event is a cooperative venture of numerous churches with the help of the Brule County 4-H. Following the pageant there will be a homemade soup supper. A free will offering will be taken with all proceeds split between Chamberlain School's Helping Ends Meet program and Kimball School's Weekend Backpack Snack program. Those interested in being in the community choir should call Nancy DeBoer at 605-730-3210. Come and join in the true meaning of Christmas. For more information contact Jeff Tveit 605-730-0553.

If you know of someone who should receive home communion and/or a visit from a church member, please let Pastor Paula know. We are trying to reach out to those who are unable to join us at church.
